

I would like to share with you the purpose, intent and heartfelt desires of this movement. This site offers you an entrance into a New Reality that we know not in this earth as one body, one family nor as a spiritually healthy gathering as God's children.

We must be willing to look closely and examine how our reality based in the world is actually surreal. We must be willing to see the erosion we have all allowed and contributed to. Ignorance is a sad excuse for choosing to ignore that which is in plain sight and not hidden!

I too have done all these things that are wrong. Through recognizing what is wrong I have chosen a new path. This site reflects the many treasures I have found that are of Heaven that are available for me, you and everyone...

This virtual canvass contains...

A Sharing of The Light that I have found, a wreckage of a man lost at the bottom of the sea, a sheep that fell into an empty, dark well. An Invitation to The Brighter Light that is our Hope In Christ, In Yah'shua and a reintroduction to His Father Who Is Our Father... The Timeless and Ancient of Days...The Holy God of Israel !

A Drink Offering From The Well That Is Deep that is of The Living Water... of Life Eternal...

A Table set and a meal offered freely to the hungry and those starving in spiritual poverty. A meal that satisfies the stomach that growls by day and by night. A meal once tasted instills a new hunger, a new desire that will not settle for less, for the crumbs offered in the world.

You will find art, music and writings not only those given me but those of others of like heart being mindful of the sacredness of where all things come from.

This site is an entrance to one path...A Higher Path ! Knowing that we come from many angles there are many approaches and directions available to you as you are free to choose when and where you go.

We ask nothing of you but to freely receive of that which we have received. You are invited to a well that is deep and to come into A Light That Is Greater...A Lampstand that is freely there for all!

We seek to provide you with a new knowledge, wisdom and understanding that is quite contrary to what we see and are taught in this world. We offer you the same Rabbi, the same Teacher Who's feet we gather at. It is truly up to you !

The reality of our plight is often hidden behind the confines of our comfort...our perspective becomes one not unlike a horse wearing blinders that can only see in one direction requiring direction guided by the driver.

We examine the drivers that yield us one wreck after another while claiming our own existence to be perfect according to our desires and our vision for what life should be about.

Truth Reigns Supreme in this site...there is no mis-direction, no hidden drivers or desires on our part except to offer you a new perspective, a new view at reality and a way that is exceedingly better while exceedingly more difficult than conforming to the ways of this world.

" Whitewashed is the canvass of our true afflictions, our turmoil and our spiritual poverty "

A place to rest one's head, to leave behind the turmoil of a life traveled and to recognize how impoverished we have become as children and as a family separated from God Our Father.

A place where The Light of A Candle lit by the Servant of All is one that cannot be extinguished and can burn brighter in the hearts of we His children into our innermost hidden fragilities and sacred innocense lost in a stormy sea called the world. It is we that must say "Enough is Enough" and we that must want a new light !

A place to look into the mirror of our true needs that are simple...Love, Compassion, Kindness and, most of all, to treat one another's heart as sacred and precious space...It is not man that can go to these deep places of our innermost being, it is The Lord God Who cherishes and holds we His Creation sacred that can cross the chasm of our deepest fears to meet our deepest longing with His Love, His Embrace and His Heart. His Heart can re-unite with ours if we are willing...if we are willing to trust for the first time or willing to trust just one more time !

It is a landing, an island and A Rock upon which we can wash up upon without judgment of our condition, our weakness and our fearful vulnerability ! A land that lies all around us and can once again emerge from within us. It is we that live upon our own islands of despair and of blindness that recognize not that the stormy sea separates us from one another and from God.

It is A Hand extended toward us that can take our hearts and souls into His Bosom where we may find rest and be healed, delivered from the fire that destroys into The Fire of A Heart that burns Eternally as a fireplace warms us as we enter from the cold outdoors.

A place to find oneself once again. It is hard to find anything in a room shadowed in the darkness. To find and take back what a thief has stolen...to receive The Promise of an inheritance in The Son...a return, released from our chains to venture back into a seamless connection with God, with our heritage and with the blood that has flowed forth vessel to vessel out of A Promise Made, The Promise of a Great Nation Made to Abraham, a friend of The Lord's.

A place to come to know how we have come against God Who Is Our Friend... Who Has Extended His Hand to us Through His Most Precious Son Christ Jesus, Yah'shua that we may, through coming to Know Him, come to once again be a friend unto Him and then truly friends, brothers and sisters once again.

What the world has eroded away can be gathered to become as the mortar that binds together a new house, a new structure built upward with lowly humility firmly upon The Rock. The Rock of our redemption and salvation...A New House where we may dwell together with He Who seeks to Dwell with us, amongst we His People !

But first we must acknowledge that we are indeed lost sheep in need of A Good Shepherd ! It is the sheep that has no shepherd that lives alone, separated from the flock and Our Good Shepherd !

Let us come together and learn how to Love again without hurt, pain and anguish. May we learn to reach out to the needy by ourselves acknowledging our need and then reaching out to receive. For he who has not received into the deepest of places cannot freely give of a cup that has been filled and is readied to overflow. Our cups are filled with cracks and voids that cannot hold the good wine. The cup that is our heart is need of repair, if not replacement. If we have but crumbs we cannot feed another. If we settle for death as life then we cannot offer life unto another. And...He and she that know not the true source of these things eternal know not a new life, a new hope and a new love that will endure beyond the rule of our selfishness and callous disregard for the we that are all children of God. It is the flesh that is selfish unto the suffering and neglect of others that leaves a residue of the ash of lives lost forevermore in the history of our hearts closed, hardened. Separated from one another are we that are to be gathered together seeking at every moment The Heart of Our Loving and Kind Creator. He that has never left our side as we wander aimlessly down the wide path of our collective destruction in this space granted us, made for us...we and HIM together !

" Perfect is the measure and flow of God's Love. It is the brook that pours forth Living Water...His Light reaches deep into the heart parched...that truly fills to overflowing that we might embrace and dance for the ages together in Life Eternal...Amen !
