

Simplicity vs. Complexity

The Lord, as our God, is simplicity.

We, as humans, are complexity.

We are taught lies from the Father of Lies

From the moment we are born into this world.

The Father of Lies, who is satan, seeks to complicate and side track us from our true Heavenly Father.

Remember that you cannot serve two masters.

Does life feel too complicated?

Not enough time to slow down?

No time for quality family time?

Things not going well with your spouse?

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Have you had enough?

Seek Father God when you have had enough.

Let go of self.

Grab onto Me.

This is what Our Father says!

Take time out of the equation and you will find God.
Make Him your first priority?
Trust in Him and watch how life changes.
Your life will be simpler because you will know that you have no real control over your life...God does.
The hard part is undoing all the Lies and Complexities.

Commit, be patience and endure.
Fast from the world for it teaches you nothing.
Seek me and I will protect you from the ways of the wicked.
I will wash away your own wickedness
if you are willing to step into the fire of your own ways.
As you begin to understand the wickedness of your own flesh,
then you will understand the motives of others.
In this way judgment of others will be converted to the fruit of being a blessing onto others.
Your thoughts, words and actions are your fruit.
Look at the evidence of your own fruit,
that which is good and that which is rotten.

Be willing to change from everything you thought you knew.

Only then do you begin the journey of simplicity.
Wisdom, knowledge and deeper understanding are what I offer.

Cast all of your wants and needs onto Me.
Only I know you perfectly.

I hold the keys to your deliverance and healing.
Come know a freedom that lasts eternally.
Come to My place of simplicity.

Know that I cannot speak to your flesh.
I cannot speak to your worldly thoughts.
I speak to you through My Spirit.

I speak to your Spirit which is hidden deep within you.
I speak past your head to the center of your being.
Ask me how you might hear me and see my realm.

Know that you must be born again.
Baptized by me, your Lord in My Holy Spirit
Filled with My Spirit, I open up My faucet of truth.
First it will drip forth, then it will trickle, then it will flow as rivers of life, rivers of provision.
Guided and One with Me, your Father.
Knock and I will answer.

I am at the center of your soul.
I am the light that guides your ways.

My grace holds you up and protects you from harm.

Beware of the choices you make from your place of bondage.
Your place of darkness.
Come into My light.

I Am the lamp onto your feet and onto your path.
This lighted path is My Will for your life.
I will remove the wickedness of your heart.
The wickedness of your desires.
The desires of your flesh.

You will find the desires that I place on your heart.

I cannot speak to your flesh.
I speak to you through your heart, your spirit which is Mine at the center of who you are.
In that place of innocence, the innocence of the child you once were.

Replace the uncertainty.
Replace the complexity.
My ways are simple.

In and through Me all things are possible.
I alone am the enabler.
You do nothing as a vessel onto yourself.
I am your Father.

I know you perfectly.
Lay all things at My feet, at My alter.
All things that have not worked...

Control

Fear

Imagination

Pride

Illusions

Pointing the finger at others for your bad choices and misplaced loyalty.

Seeking answers in all the wrong places.

The world has no answers.

The world offers you nothing.

I offer you everything.

The world offers you discouragement, destruction and death.

I offer you encouragement, release, renewal, restoration that you might live.

Where does it end?

It ends with your decision.

It ends here.
It begins here.
Indeed I am here.
You are welcome here.
You are My child.
Do not deny yourself.
Trust.

Apply the measure of faith I have given you.
I will transform you.
I will renew your mind.
I will equip you.

Watch what happens.
Watch what I
Your Lord and God will do.
Accept me.

Be still and listen.

I am in the stillness, in the background.
Make the background your foreground.

Proclaim Me as your Lord and Savior.
Truly revere Me as your King.
Then, and only then all these things and so much more will be given onto you.
