

My Kindergarten

...the Garden of My Children

The journey is always back before you can go forward.

Seek to be the child you once were,
the child you were intended to be.
Be not what the world has transformed you into.

It is our Lord's restoration and renewal that can reverse the infusion of world lies, hurt, wounds, pain and suffering that has covered over the hearts of His children like a thick cloud.

God is found by first believing by faith that He is there.
Faith is a gift from Father God that must be given Unto Him and Him Alone..
Once He is found it is like finding
His fountain that waters our youth.
The Eternal Fountain of Youth.
We can live eternal as
"Children of God".

The Father's Heart desires that we come home to Him.
It has been so since the beginning and He has not changed.

The Father has said...
“Let my People Go”.
We must also let go of our desperate grasp and clinging to the world and the very little it offers.

I am a child based in Christ.
I am a babe and want to stay this way.
In this way my trust is that of a child of God.
This opens the door to My Father, His Goodness
and
His Kingdom. to me.
I was made by His Hand.
I am precious in His Sight.
I know how much He loves
and cares about me.

It feels good to be in the Father's arms.
I want to stay there even if others
try so hard to pull me away.

My lap is large enough for all of my children...
And
I do not play favorites.
You are never too old to enter
My Kindergarten.
