

The God I Know

Let me tell you of The God
I have come to know.

Knowing Him is a journey that never ends as His Depth is Eternal.
I live With Him now and He within me.

I now look forward now, never back.
My eyes are keenly focused on Him like a flint.

When the patterns of old creep back around I run back to My Father In Heaven... for that man was
of the flesh and a child of the world,
not a child of The Father.

No one can take away what I am by showing me what I was
as I am not my past.

I am no longer the man I once was.
I am no longer of the same thoughts...
I am no longer in bondage to my flesh that ruled over all parts of my life.
I am no longer alone.

I now know who I am and have become In Him.
I know that The Good Things come by patiently enduring and the changing of my walk.

I say that all that The Scriptures present
us with is truly possible and real.
They are no longer Truth
if tampered with.

They are much more than old stories to be kept upon a shelf believing they be unattainable, unreachable
or undoable in us.

What I am In Him is what you too can be !!!

The child cared for you too can be...
the child guided by Him.

You too can come to hear His Voice.

You too can come to see Him.

You too are beloved.

I have been given much more that I ever could have imagined or expected in this my walk With My Lord.

Reach out For The Hand that meets us when we reach upward with our faith, hope and trust.

Whether a small portion or a large measure
the first be last and the last be first !

The Lord Invites you to the place that I have found and will never leave.

The Lord Invites you home.
The Lord Truly Loves you.

I pray that as you read these writings given me of The Lord that you come To Know and Love...

The God I Know

That I have come to know...
and you too can know as I!

Scribe of The Lord's Invitation.

When I speak of The God I know some become angry and attack me because they say "what makes you so special?"

I respond to this with "I am not special and a relationship with God as I know it was available to many in The Word of God and is not reserved for history.

The relationship that is possible is what I offer through my witness and my testimony knowing that there are those in need as I was in need that will seek The Lord as He Invites them to where I have arrived...I seek to encourage and bring hope to all as a Torch In The Hand of My Lord And God!

I am not the Bridge, The Lord Is The Way that I point to and I seek to Glorify Him in the earth.
