

Taking & Holding

The High Sacred Ground

Heap ye the hot coals of My Righteousness upon the heads of Mine enemies...

Be not baited by evil into evil...into wickedness !!!
Be not drawn into conflict and out of the Lord's Peace.

Leave it to itself and alone in its evil deceits...
react only with love and compassion.
Grant death not life, but rather share life with the dead.

In Christ is life so be as Christ in the sight of those that are as enemies against us and thus Christ.
Bring forth light where darkness is hurled forth.
For it is His Light that is the hottest of coal unto those that are the darkest of spirit.

Oh Lord bring forth the coals, the fire and the brimstone upon those that defy You and Your Kingdom that Is, Always Was and Forever Shall Be...Amen.
